Market of Choice: Renovation and retrofit are now staples in the hospitality market. Identifying products that provide a great—even historic—look in a cost-effective manner is crucial. For instance, thin brick can deliver the full effect of the traditional building material, but at a fraction of the cost. [Page 47]

Achieving LEED

Luxury and efficiency meet in San Diego's Hotel Indigo, the city's sole-certified resort.

Itsy Bitsy Aperture

Unveiled at Lightfair 2012, the NanoLED NXT features an industry-first 10-degree optic within a 2.5-in. aperture to deliver the greatest beam control in the smallest possible package. NanoLED NXT also provides the fixture-to-fixture color consistency needed to accurately specify and illuminate a space. Circle 498
